Three Options for Residency or Residency waiver classification

1. Full Utah Residency 2. Section 702 NR Waiver 3. Yellow Ribbon NR Waiver

*Residency application must be submitted by the end of the 1st week of the term

Failure to do so may result in you paying the non-resident costs that term

Application: Online form is accessed via your MyPage account, found near the bottom, on the left-hand side.

1. Establish Utah Residency for Veterans/dependents  The best option

Veteran/spouse/dependent to complete the residency under the State law benefits:

- No matter what chapter of benefits Veteran is using and even if not using benefits
- Gives residency for dependents moving with Veteran if within 5 years of being discharged
- Not required to attend every term to be qualified
- Veteran and dependent required by law to change DL and car registration in compliance with law
- Residency is changed and will apply if student transfer to another Utah institution

Veteran honorably discharged from service

Spouse/dependent of Veteran

No matter from any state

No matter from any state

No matter how many years from discharge

Move to Utah within 5 yr of Veterans discharge

All applications must include: Residency app, Ut Driver's License & Car Registration, DD-214, etc.

2. Section 702 Residency tuition waiver requirements

Does not change residency--waives non-resident tuition only

Cannot certify and use 702 for residency until all proof is submitted- Chapter 30 and 33 only

Veteran must be Honorably Discharged from the military within 3 years to use this waiver

Section 702 Addendum form Must be completed each semester by the end of the first week of term

If Veteran/dependent misses one semester using VA benefits or moves, section 702 no longer applies.

3. Yellow Ribbon Waiver for dependents of a Veteran transferring benefits to dependent.

Dependents at SLCC attending under Chapter 33-Transfer of benefits may be eligible for a Yellow ribbon Waiver to help defray the non-resident charge. The veteran must be eligible for 100% of chapter 33 benefit. Complete college application AND complete request for Yellow Ribbon Waiver found at www.slcc.edu/veterans. This option does not waive the full amount. The VA pays resident tuition, the college pays up-to $1,300 per term, VA matches up-to $1,300, dependent pays remainder of tuition/fees.
